

How we built the world's fastest web server (and what we did next)

Zeus Technology is a Cambridge-based software company, working mainly in application traffic management. This technical talk from two members of the development team will cover some of the design and implementation challenges encountered during the company's history.

Wed 23rd Jan 3:30pm
S0.11 (Social Studies)

